

All-School Read for CCS Edina Campus

This year's all-school read is the book, The Heart of a Shepherd, by Rosanne Parry.

The idea for the all-school read is to have one book for a school year that we all have in common that could lead to lively discussions among us.

Several classroom teachers will be reading the book to their students during the school year, but parents, grandparents, siblings, extended family and friends of CCS are also encouraged to read and discuss the book with each other and their students.

The story is about a twelve year old boy who promises to help his grandparents tend the family's Oregon ranch while his brothers are away and his father is deployed to Iraq.

A Kirkus Review says the book is "At once a gripping coming-of-age novel and a celebration of rural life, quiet heroism and the strength that comes from spirituality."
